

LEARNING the CURVE presents:
@central library

Hot Jazz for Cool Kids

Three family friendly performances by Indy's leading jazz musicians

A perfect Sunday afternoon...

Central Library
in the Clowes Auditorium
40 E. Saint Clair Street

FREE and open to the public • All ages welcome

Sunday, March 6 at 3pm

Cohen-Rutkowski Project

This high energy quartet will bring New Orleans rhythms and Mardi Gras spirit to the Library!

Sunday, April 10 at 3pm

The Gene Markiewicz Band

Performing the music of jazz legends to celebrate Jazz Appreciation Month!

Thomas Gregg Neighborhood School student art exhibit

Student art exploring jazz and jazz musicians on view during the month of April.

Sunday, May 1 at 3pm

Premium Blend

Jared Thompson and band back by popular demand!

IN ASSOCIATION WITH

IN ASSOCIATION WITH

indypl.org

Hot Jazz for Cool Kids

A perfect Sunday afternoon ... three family friendly performances by Indy's leading jazz musicians

Sunday, March 6 at 3PM

Cohen-Rutkowski Project

It's Mardi Gras season! Clap along to irresistible rhythms as saxophonist Rich Cohen and pianist Chris Rutowski's high energy quartet perform both original music and classics in the genre of New Orleans street grooves.

Photo courtesy of Mark Sheldon

Sunday, April 10 at 3PM

The Gene Markiewicz Band

Drummer Gene Markiewicz brings together an "A+" group of musicians who will lead the audience on a musical journey to some of the high points of jazz history.

Thomas Gregg Neighborhood School student art exhibit

Student art exploring jazz and jazz musicians on view during the month of April.

Photo courtesy of Mark Sheldon

Sunday, May 1 at 3PM

Premium Blend

Led by saxophonist Jared Thompson, Premium Blend is a modern jazz quartet that combines traditional elements of bebop and hard bop with r&b and groove. Backed by guitarist Ryan Taylor, keyboardist Steven Jones, and drummer Brian Yarde, PB's spin on jazz resonates with die-hard jazz fans and novices alike. The band released their third studio album "Vices" in the summer of 2019.